

Valley Beit Midrash

VBM: Your Home in the Valley for Community Learning

Join us for a Scholar in Residence Weekend with

Rabbi David Ingber

Rabbi Ingber is the founder and Spiritual Director of Romemu, a community in New York City that is transforming the way Judaism is practiced and experienced by infusing aspects of Eastern spiritual practices with traditional Orthodox influences.

Join us for an engaging weekend of exploration of our different relationships to the Divine. Through prayer, song, and text, we will engage the age old question, "who or what is God?" We will engage our hearts and minds in the search for answers to this question of ultimate importance.

Friday, January 7th

5:30pm – pre-Shabbat nosh for the entire community

6:15pm – Kabbalat Shabbat services led by Rabbi Ingber

Dvar Torah: The Ayins Have It - The Nothingness that is Everything.

Saturday, January 8th

8:45am - Shacharit service

Sermon: Facing an Abusive G-d - Theologies of Protest.

7:00pm - Community Lecture

Rabbi Meir and the Face of Divine Uncertainty.

Sunday, January 9th

10:30am – Community Lecture

G-d is a Four Letter Word: Is Monotheism Idolatry's Last Hiding Place?

All programs take place at Temple Chai - 4645 East Marilyn Road, Phoenix, AZ 85032

All programs for this weekend are free of charge and open to the entire community.

For more information, or to join the Valley Beit Midrash mailing list, contact info@valleybeitmidrash.org.

This project is funded in part by a grant from the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Phoenix

This program is supported by

